

Subject: Probable scam webpage

To whom it may concern:

I just became aware of a probable scam website selling English Bulldogs. Someone with the website www.globulldogs.net has been advertising English Bulldogs in multiple cities across the U.S. They were using the contact phone number 520-777-9776 for a while, but have recently started using 520-777-6779 in their online classified ads hosted by "backpage.com" in a number of major U.S. cities. Unfortunately, this is my business phone. I am now getting a flood of phone calls from people wanting to buy bulldogs. Needless to say, I am unhappy about this. (I am a geologist with a very small business--just myself.) Besides, I dislike scammers and I especially dislike animal abusers.

The phone number 520-777-9776 has apparently been associated with "greatpupz.com" in the past. It is also associated with a number of webpages purportedly selling electronics equipment. The area code 520 covers southern Arizona, but the online businesses are everywhere but Arizona.

Could you please add this website ("globulldogs") to your lists? I have contacted backpage.com as well. I hope the ads will get pulled soon. In the meantime, I found each of your email addresses by searching for people keeping track of scammers. I hope that getting the word out on your websites will help too. Good luck to you. This must be a never-ending task.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Miksa
